A cappella Tour

March 24-26, 2010

Toronto

Plans are for a very busy and successful tour this year. We will experience several different venues of performance. Our performances will range from the elementary, to middle school, to high school, and the university level. We must be ready to sing our best. Keep up the focus in rehearsal and be responsible to be prompt to daily rehearsals.

In an effort to provide a successful excursion for the A cappella Choir Tour, we are reaffirming the following CODE OF CONDUCT as per the Howell Public Schools present code.

CODE OF CONDUCT: Compliance of Howell High School Code. Make special note of the following:

- 1] NO use of alcohol
- 2] NO use of tobacco
- 3] NO use of illegal drugs
- 4] Proper decorum appropriate to represent our school

While at the hotel, NO GUYS IN GIRLS ROOMS AND NO GIRLS IN GUYS ROOMS.

Choir member's activities will be subject to the jurisdiction of Mr. Rod Bushey. Failure to comply with his direction will be considered grounds for insubordination.

PARENT/GUARDIAN

We understand that our son/daughter will be expected to maintain the above guidelines and we feel that our child completely understands the limitations of the above Code. We also feel that he/she has the maturity to handle this responsibility. Failure to comply with the above Code would be grounds for disciplinary action and could result in the violator being sent home at the parent's/guardian's expense.

I understand and agree with the above policy and extend PERMISSION for the participation of my child.

STUDENT

I understand and agree to abide by the Code of conduct as stated above, realizing that violation of the above would be interpreted as insubordination and could result in being sent home and/or suspended from school. Realizing that the reputation the Choir program is dependent on the conduct of all, I will not only be responsible for my conduct, but will remind others of their responsibility also.
