We will be performing at Bowling Green High School, Otsego High School, Bowling Green State University, and Otterbein-Portage Village assisted living facility. Let's be ready to do our best. This is shaping up to be a very successful tour. Please continue to work diligently in preparation. This tour should yield some very positive results musically as we are involved in performances, observations, and clinics.

Please meet the deadlines and continue to improve each day in rehearsal. You are part of an exciting time with the Howell Choirs and we will continue to enjoy great experiences together this year.

Ready to Tour,

Rod Bushey

Director of Choirs

PERMISSION FORM/CODE OF CONDUCT AGREEMENT
Howell High School
Women's Chorale/Select Choir Tour 2010

NAME _____ GRADE _____

ADDRESS _____ PHONE _____

In an effort to provide a successful excursion for the Women's Choir Tour, we are reaffirming the following CODE OF CONDUCT as per the Howell Public Schools present code.

CODE OF CONDUCT: Compliance of Howell High School Code. Make special note of the following:

- 1] NO use of alcohol
- 2] NO use of tobacco
- 3] NO use of illegal drugs
- 4] Proper decorum appropriate to represent our school

Choir member's activities will be subject to the jurisdiction of Mr. Rod Bushey. Failure to comply with his direction will be considered grounds for insubordination.

PARENT/GUARDIAN

We understand that our daughter will be expected to maintain the above guidelines and we feel that our child completely understands the limitations of the above Code. We also feel that she has the maturity to handle this responsibility. Failure to comply with the above Code would be grounds for disciplinary action and could result in the violator being sent home at the parent's/guardian's expense.

I understand and agree with the above policy and extend PERMISSION for the participation of my child.
